

What to Bring Along

Be sure to bring your swatches, wall colors/coverings, measurements, photographs, etc. when you come shopping with us. While you're here, simply provide us with your current email address and receive your own custom, oversized Printer's Alley Project Bag. It makes your shopping experience simpler to manage, organize and loads of fun!

Please take a quick look at the list we've provided below to ensure that your project is well-organized so that we can begin working together immediately to make your dream a reality!

- Samples of fabrics that need to coordinate with your project.
- Carpet or floorcovering sample - or a detailed, accurate photo of your rug, etc. if you cannot supply actual samples.
- Sample of the wall color or wallpaper - or a detailed, accurate photo if you cannot supply actual samples.
- Print How To Measure Your Window (downloadable .pdf available on our website) to assist you with accurate window measurements if working on window treatments.
- Print How to Measure Your Bed (downloadable .pdf available on our website) to assist you with accurate bed measurements if working on bed treatments.
- House plans, if you have them, and are working on a new house or a specific room of unusual size or design.
- Samples of fabrics or colors of adjoining rooms that might influence the project.
- Magazine pictures of design elements or specific room designs you particularly like.
- Pictures of room - featuring accessories - if you are working specifically on accessories.
- Bring photos of your room - the more you bring, the more accurately we can assist you in achieving the results you desire.

Things to Consider

- We need your honest input on your project - we consider no comments or questions insignificant and aren't offended whatsoever at any requests or comments we receive.
- Consider your overall project budget and share it with us, so that together, we can maximize results based on your desires - tempered by your budget.
- Lastly, please share your desired timeframe with us so that we can do everything possible to help you work to complete your project by the date you have in mind.

Anything you can provide from the list above will help us to more accurately assist you and also will save you time and money in the process. We look forward to working with you!
